

E-focus Training in partnership with the Victorian Aboriginal Community Services Association
Limited (VACSAL) Community Training Centre

You are invited to enrol in the following courses:

Certificate IV in Community Services - CHC42015

Certificate IV in Disability - CHC43115

Certificate III in Individual Support (Ageing/HACC) – CHC33015

These are nationally accredited qualifications and are accepted all over Australia.

Why:

These courses aim to build the skills of those who work, or want to work, in the community services sector. These skills involve providing support to individuals, families and community.

Our staff are committed to providing knowledge and learning for Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal students in a culturally accepting environment. This includes learning to work through the challenges of balancing work, family and community responsibilities. This course also aims to develop student's abilities to work as part of an organisation and work with other people in a variety of ways.

When:

We are expected to start in February 2017 once expressions of interest have been submitted.

Course delivery:

You will be expected to attend weekly workshops. Days of the week will depend on what course you will be enrolled in and be working or volunteering in the appropriate sector as part of your assessment.

Where:

496 High Street, Northcote Vic 3070 (VACSAL's main office).
Parking available and the Dennis Street entrance.

Eligibility:

You must be 18 years or older.
Are you working, or want to work, in the community services sector?
We welcome people with disabilities.

Training delivery:

- Group facilitated learning, yarning and guest specialist speakers
- Catch up sessions and learning support
- Assessment activities during workshop sessions
- Individual and group presentations
- Workplace based assessment
- Support provided to complete learning and assessment tasks.

Cost:

The courses are delivered with Victorian and Commonwealth funding to eligible participants.
